

PRESIDENT'S SECRETARIAT (PUBLIC)

PRESS WING

(PR No.175/2018)

ISLAMABAD: NOVEMBER 20, 2018: Ambassador of Turkmenistan Atadjan Movlamov who is also the Dean of Diplomatic Corps called on the President Dr. Arif Alvi at the Aiwan-e-Sadr, Islamabad today. President Dr. Arif Alvi said that Pakistan greatly values its fraternal relations with Turkmenistan which are rooted in common culture and history and is desirous of further enhancing these relations in all fields. The President underscored the importance of further strengthening bilateral trade and economic relations between the two countries. He also stressed the need for creating synergies and linkages between the business communities of the both countries. He emphasized that Turkmenistan can play an important role as a hub for energy in the region. He also affirmed Pakistan's commitment to the early implementation of Turkmenistan-Afghanistan-Pakistan-India (TAPI) gas pipeline project.

The President also appreciated the services of Mr. Atadjan Movlamov as Ambassador of Turkmenistan to Pakistan since 2012.
