Turkish Ambassador to Pakistan calls on President

ISLAMABAD: December 03, 2018: The President Dr. Arif Alvi has said that Pakistan is investment ready country now and investors from all over the world, particularly from Turkey must take advantage of this opportunity. He was talking to H.E. Mr. Ihsan Mustafa Yurdakul, Turkish Ambassador to Pakistan, who called on him here this morning.

The Turkish Ambassador called on the President mainly to follow up President's visit to Turkey in October this year. The President said that Turkish companies have invested immensely in Pakistan in energy and infrastructure projects. He further said that Pakistan and Turkey are bound in deep and historical relations, which are not only brotherly but mutually beneficial as well. He also said that both the countries have strong defence ties as well. The President and the Ambassador hoped that as a result of President's recent visit to Turkey the mutual relations will be further deepened and broadened with the possibility of further high level contact in near future.
