

Karachi; May 04, 2019: First lady Mrs. Samina Arif Alvi visited NJV Government Higher Secondary school, which has been adopted by Akhuwat trust in 2015. She was welcomed by the management of the trust and given a brief presentation about the working condition of the school before and after its adoption by Akhuwat.

Addressing the gathering, Mrs. Samina Arif Alvi appreciated Akhuwat Trust for organizing the gathering. She said that Akhuwat Trust is playing a vital role in the field of education by providing Qarz-e-Hasna. She expressed her pleasure in visiting the school. She also conveyed her delight that contrary to her perception that the school would perhaps be a single room type school, she has found it be spacious and well-maintained. She commended the efforts and hard work put in by Akhuwat trust.
