

PRESIDENT'S SECRETARIAT (PUBLIC)
PRESS WING

(PR No.143/2018)

ISLAMABAD: SEPTEMBER 27, 2018: President Dr. Arif Alvi said that H.H Prince Karim Aga Khan's vision and untiring efforts in promoting global peace, inter-faith dialogue, cultural diversity and pluralism have contributed towards the development and uplift of economically disadvantaged communities across the world.

The President said this while talking to Hafiz Sherali, President of the Aga Khan Council for Pakistan who called on him to deliver a letter from H.H Prince Karim Aga Khan. In his message, H.H Prince Karim Aga Khan congratulated the President on his election. He also highlighted the continued partnership and collaboration between Pakistan and Aga Khan Development Network (AKDN) to improve the quality of life of the people.

President Dr. Arif Alvi stated that AKDN in rendering commendable services in the field of education, health and rural development in various parts of the country. He appreciated the services of Aga Khan Foundation during 2005 Earthquake. He also highlighted that Aga Khan's grandfather Sir Sultan Shah Aga Khan was a very close companion of Father of the Nation Quaid-e-Azam Ali Jinnah who and played a very important role in Pakistan Movement.

Hafiz Sherali also briefed the President about activities of AKDN in Pakistan.
